

Book Voucher Policy for Pell Eligible Students

Pell-eligible students are entitled to a refund of EXCESS financial aid (usually from a student loan) for other educational expenses such as books and supplies, by the seventh day of a payment period if:

- Ten days before the beginning of the payment period, the school could have disbursed FSA funds to the student; and
- Disbursement of those funds would have created an FSA credit balance.

If students wish to use their refund to pay for books, a Book Voucher may be requested through the Office of Student Financial Services located in Obal Hall on the Lodi campus.
