

Students' Bill of Rights

All students have the right to:

1. To be free from any suggestion that victims must report the crime in order to receive rights;
2. To have any report of sexual assault treated seriously and with dignity;
3. To be free from any suggestion that victims are responsible for the commission of crimes against them;
4. To be free from any pressure from campus personnel to:
  - Report crimes if the victim does not wish to do so;
  - Report crimes as lesser offenses than the victim perceives them to be;
  - Refrain from reporting crimes to avoid unwanted publicity;
5. To be notified of existing campus and community-based medical, counseling, mental health, and student services for victims of sexual assault regardless of whether the crime is formally reported to campus or to civil law enforcement authorities;
6. To have access to campus counseling under the same terms and conditions as other students at the University;
7. To be informed of and assisted in exercising any rights to confidential or anonymous testing for sexually transmitted diseases, human immunodeficiency virus (HIV), and/or pregnancy;
8. To be afforded the same access to legal assistance as the accused;
9. To be afforded the same opportunity to have others present during any campus disciplinary proceeding that is allowed for the accused;
10. To be notified of the outcome of the sexual assault disciplinary proceeding against the accused;
11. To have any allegation of sexual assault investigated and adjudicated by the appropriate criminal and civil authorities of the jurisdiction in which the sexual assault is reported;
12. To receive full and prompt cooperation and assistance of campus personnel in notifying the proper authorities, if this is the victim's decision;
13. To receive full, prompt, and victim-sensitive cooperation of trained campus personnel with regard to obtaining, securing, and maintaining evidence, including a medical examination when it is necessary to preserve evidence of an assault;
14. To be free from any suggestion that victims were contributory negligent or assumed the risk of being assaulted;
15. To require campus personnel to take reasonable and necessary actions to prevent further unwanted contact of victims by their alleged assailants;
16. To be notified of the options for, and provided assistance in, changing academic and living situations if such changes are reasonably available.
